

Lack of access to healthcare professionals for rural patients results in delayed and expensive treatment and high mortality

Virtual Presence of remotely located doctors through ICT (Information Communication Technology) enabled health kiosks that facilitates realtime interaction between doctor and patient irrespective of their location

Income Group

Reason for going to Kiosk

Realtime delivery of patient vitals to remotely located doctors through cloud based virtual sensors

Privacy aware secure storage and retrieval of health records and streaming sensor data

Medical knowledgebase for symptom collection

Sensor aware marketplace for healthcare applications

Failsafe SMS based information exchange

Generates employment and enhances rural economy

Disease Pattern

